

Future Visioning

Glimpse the Future of Your Business

Have you ever had an idea and then found a competitor had beaten you to it?

Or thought something was going to be 'the next big thing' and then watched it fail?

Have you needed to come up with a new innovative idea of concept and faced writer's block?

Imagine if you had a real life crystal ball that would let you see where you, your product/service and your business will be in the future.....

In this ever changing world of business and technology being and staying head of the game is no mean feat.

Knowing what your customers are going to want from you (often before they know it themselves) and building on that knowledge to create the products and services that will be right for the times ahead are crucial steps to growing a lasting and valuable business. But where do you start and how do you establish what is likely to become a long-term trend in your area of the market?

This event will provide you with hindsight – but hindsight from the future!

Combining the unique talents of top psychic Anne Jirsch and leading coach Ed Percival "Future Visioning" is business strategizing with a twist for the new millennium. It's all very well planning for the future, but how can you plan for the unknown?

You will experience:

Visiting your possible future and witnessing some of the trends that emerge.

What customers expect from the future

What competition is doing in your field

What has been invented

How you can use your experience of the future

Have hindsight from the future perspective

Change your offering before the competition

Make sure you are on the right track, heading in the right direction

Overcome problems in the present

'Future Visioning' is based on the study of Future Life Progression – which is the field created by Anne Jirsch and Coaching Strategies and implementation based on Ed Percival's experience of coaching world-class brands and growing his company through three global recessions.
